Donating your IRA distributions to a charity

This is an option you may choose for paying your membership dues.

Qualified charitable distributions (QCDs) have been permanently extended. Individuals can donate up to $100,000 per year directly from a traditional or Roth IRA to qualifying charities. This is attractive to some investors because QCDs can be used to satisfy required minimum distributions (RMDs) from an IRA without having the distribution included in their income.

If you are interested in this option, you may consult your personal financial planner. If you would like the name of a local financial advisor, please contact us.
